NOVEMBER PROGRAM

For more than 15 years, Oakland fiber artist Nancy Brown has been making exquisite, lifelike animal portraits with hand appliqué. Her often-whimsical animal faces (and occasional human faces) have won many awards and can be found in books, magazines, and corporate and private art collections. She will present both a slide show of her work and bring several quilts for show and tell.

Retreat: Is back!! Walker Creek is back and we have reserved February 24th - 26th. Cost is $105 a night with a two night minimum. There will be a daily rate for members who do not wish to stay the night.

Dues: Dues are due today. Please get them in.

Ways and Means: Amanda and Shannon are heading up our ways and means committee. This committee is responsible for fundraising for the guild. They will be in need of people to help make items for upcoming craft fairs. Saturday November 19th is at the Petaluma Elks. Thanksgiving weekend they will also be in attendance at another market. Amanda will be running a sew day on October 22nd from 10am to 4pm at the library to make items to sell.

COTS/ Military: Ellie shared that 14 more pillowcases and quilts were delivered to COTS.

BOM: Laura has decided to take on BOM. Thank you so much Laura!

Monthly Mini Prize: Congratulations to Ellie for winning this month's mini!

Opportunity Quilt 2022: House and Chicken quilts are underway. Laura has so kindly made kits for each block for the chicken quilt. Please see her to help with the chicken opportunity quilt.

Fat Quarter Winner: Congratulations to Diane for winning this month's FQ's. Next month's theme will be red, white, and blue.

Meeting adjourned at 8:43 PM.
 Respectfully Submitted,
 Natalie G., PQG Secretary

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I hope you all are having a fun fall season. The trees look so pretty these days. I am not looking forward to moving the clock back and losing an hour. It really does affect me. I am sure it is all in my brain. So remember to do it on Nov. 6th.

I am looking forward to seeing what you all are making for Ways & Means. Only a few of us came to the sewing day so I hope you all are busy sewing at home. There will be more information about this from Shannon and Amanda.

Did you see you can make the pumpkin Block of the Month for November...How fun is that. If you have a winter pattern that you think the group would like to make for December and January, email it to guild.

We have two opportunity quilts in the making right now. Is there someone who can take the house patterns and organize getting it put together. We had some very nice houses and strips made. BUT we need more made so if you can - it can be any house pattern you would like and just make it 6' or 8' or 10' with some light colored background. Look at past newsletters for pattern.

If you didn't get the applique for the chicken quilt you can get them at the November meeting.

I am very thankful for all of you and hope you all have a wonderful Thanksgiving weekend.

Debby L
President

THIS 'N THAT

WAYS & MEANS COMMITTEE

Our Craft Fair Sewing Day was a fun day of laughs and sewing. We worked on several sewing projects. I wish more people had joined us but we had several people stop by to see what we were up to! We talked about the Guild and the upcoming craft fairs. Thanks to Shannon for making up the flyer!

~ Amanda

QUILTS FOR COTS

Requests for quilts have increased due to the cooler weather and a number of new residents. We delivered 17 quilts and pillowcases between October 1 and October 23. Thank you for your continued support of this project, which brings joy to so many.

~ Ellie

Thank you so much to our members for participating in the Monthly Mini drawings that we have had recently. We have raised some extra cash for our Guild's general fund. The drawing for November will feature a double handle fabric basket made by Deb L and will include some Fall fabric fat quarters. We also would like to thank the members who have kindly agreed to either donate or make an item for the Monthly Mini; however we now need additional sign-ups for the coming months. Please think about participating as this is an easy way to help our Guild and bring joy to a lucky winner.

Don't forget to bring your completed craft fair items to the November meeting. Amanda will be accepting items at the meeting and also have a sign up sheet for people to help work the booths.

RETREAT is BACK at WALKER CREEK - FEB. 24-26, 2023

Things are a bit out there. We have the same rooms and spending the night is $105 a night. We HAVE to have 10 people spend the weekend. Well, we need 8 since I have myself and another going for sure. We can have up to 19 beds so there is plenty of space. We can still have day trippers, and that is $26 per person. There is another guild there, but not sure from where.

Food is a bit different and tricky but might be better for some people. They do not have a chef and are hiring a caterer. We have the option for them to take our orders for the weekend. Dinner Friday, Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner Saturday, and Breakfast and lunch Sunday (or any combination). Estimate $80 a day for 3 meals, but no prices till December.

OR

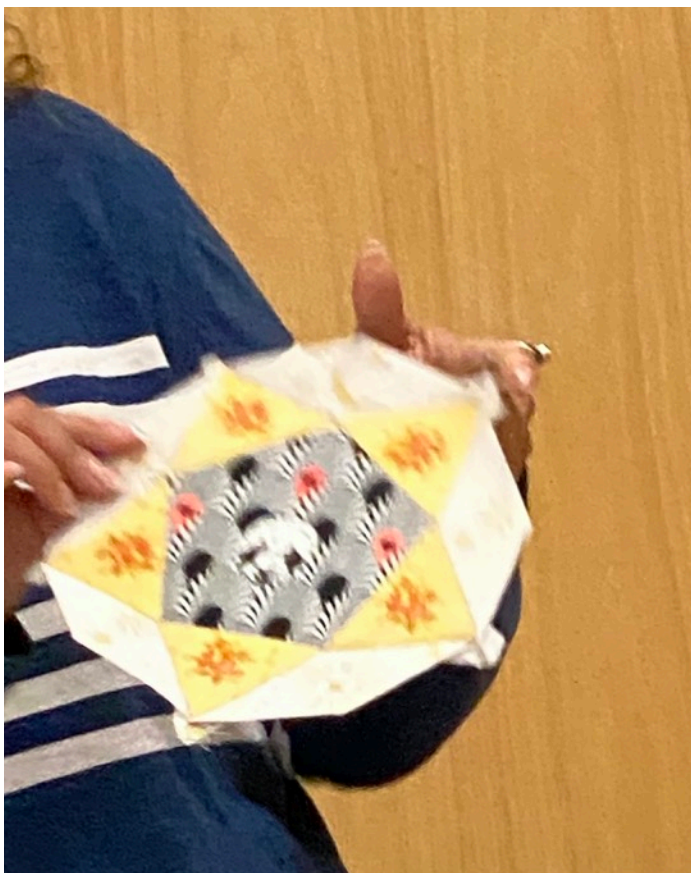

We are welcome to bring our own food, which could be a fun potluck to be planned for meals. No Kitchen is available but the lodging had a fridge and microwave. I have a portable camping stove and BBQ...so many options on that. People bring coffee makers...My mind just keeps planning this. INTERESTED.....Let Debby know.
